HARDY NEWTON

A. AND M. ROMPED ALL OVER BAYLOR

Farmers Brilliantly Closed Season with Score of 53 to 0 Over Waco Baptists.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 29.—Before a scant 3000 people at Gaston park yesterday the Farmers downed Baylor by a score of 53 to 0. The day was ideal for football and the game was full of ginger from start to finish. Baylor was outplayed at every stage of the game, though she fought gamely to the end. The teams were evenly matched in weight. Baylor only tried line bucks a few times, but was unable to make any consistent gains in that direction. Glaze's men resorted mostly to forward passes, the majority of which went wild, or were either intercepted by a Farmer. The Farmers again used everything known in the football world and got off with the most of it.

Higginbotham's Long Run.

It would be hard indeed to single out any particular star on the Farmers' team, as the entire team—rather squad—starred. Moran used nearly every man on the entire squad. Higginbotham was a very bright shining star for the Farmers, making long gains on end runs and through the line, and once on receiving Baylor's kick-off, ran ninety-five yards for a touchdown, stopping not until he had placed the ball squarely behind Baylor's goal posts. On his run Higginbotham was behind beautiful interference, McArthur being with him and knocking off at least six of the would-be tacklers. This was easily the feature of the game.

McArthur made some of the most beautiful end runs seen in many a day. Bell was in the game all the time and made five of the Farmers' eight touchdowns. He was strong on bucking the line as well as making end runs and breaking up forward passes. Bateman came in for his part of the starring, as he played his best game of the season in the game yesterday. Vesmirovsky did not have a chance to star much on kicking, as the Farmers were rarely ever forced to kick. Both Kern and Spake ran their team well and also carried the ball in grand style. Kern intercepted several of Baylor's forward passes and got away for good gains. A. and M.'s line was like a stone wall. The entire line starred. Bowler, at guard, could hardly walk, but he shared the time with Miller, and both of these men played a great game. Lambert broke through the line time after time and tackled the man carrying the ball behind the line. Crow, at tackle, was the star of the Farmers' line, playing every minute of the game and opening up holes in Baylor's line almost at will. Bott and Her-ring, two of Moran's youngsters, showed up in great style. Both Everett and Nelms, Dallas boys, played a great game, and advanced the ball for good gains time after time. Lyles, at guard, played his steady game, as did Cushman at center. His passing was of the best variety.

Baylor's One Spurt.

Baylor only took one little spurt early in the game and gained consistently for a minute or two on a lot of short forward passes, but their spurt was short lived. The Farmers soon had the forward pass tucked under their arms and was scampering down the field for a touchdown.

For Baylor Meagher, Williams, Reager and Captain Cooper did the best work. Williams was especially good on punting and his toe kept the score down to what it was. He was also strong on the forward pass. Reager and Captain Cooper did best work on the line.

MR. JOE HOWARD, SR., DEAD

This morning between 3 and 4 o'clock Mr. Joe Howard, Sr., departed this life. He was born in Mississippi in 1844 and at an early age came to Texas. In the '60s he battled for the cause of the South in the Confederate army.

He was married in this section of the country and leaves five children, viz: Mrs. T. M. Morgan of Wheelock, Mrs. T. Curlee of Steep Hollow, Robert Howard of Wheelock, and Joe Howard, Jr., and Mrs. H. G. Stallings of this city.

His death was the termination of a long and useful life, and marked the passing of another of the ever-diminishing number of the old veteran wearers of the grey that proved their patriotism and sterling worth as men in the stormy days of the Civil war.

The funeral took place from the train in Hearne this afternoon, the funeral party and the remains leaving on the 12:40 p. m. train today.

ARGUMENTS PROCEEDED TODAY IN SNEED CASE

Case Has Estranged Warm Friends. Do Not Speak to Each Other. Sat in Separate Groups.

[By Associated Press.] Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 29.—Hardly had Y. J. Cummings opened the argument for the prosecution in the Sneed trial this morning when little Georgia Beal, aged 6, daughter of John Beal Sneed, the defendant, burst into tears as Attorney Cummings began a denunciation of her father. She was led from the courtroom. Sneed's two daughters were in court today for the first time during this trial.

The friends and relatives of each family gathered in two separate groups to listen to the arguments. It was noticeable that some who formerly met with kisses and handshakes never even looked at each other, so wide has the estrangement between the two clans become.

Kissed Her Papa.

As Prosecutor Cummings shouted that a verdict of manslaughter could not save Sneed, Leonora, the defendant's eleven-year-old daughter, unable to grasp the full meaning of the attorney's bitter words, studied her father's troubled face, then she impulsively threw her little arms about his neck and kissed him.

Hanged at Waxahachie for Murder in Dallas—Fought Case Eight Years.

[By Associated Press.] Waxahachie, Texas, Nov. 29.—Burrell Oates was hanged just before 1 o'clock this afternoon. He died game and protested his innocence to the last.

Protested Innocence to Last.

[By Associated Press.] Waxahachie, Texas, Nov. 29.—Three hours before the time set for his execution for the murder of Sol Aronoff in Dallas in 1904, Burrell Oates, the negro who has had seven trials and whose remarkable case has caused two changes in the Texas statutes, stood in his cell smiling through his yellow skin, which seemed pale. He said:

"I am ready to die if it's God's will. His will be done, not mine. For eight years I have fought as hard as I knew how against the injustice of this thing, and I can't stave it off any longer. I am innocent. I was not concerned in any way in the killing of Mr. Aronoff."

Oates was baptized this morning in a big bath tub in the jail by a Dallas negro preacher.

The rope used on Oates had been used recently to hang three other negroes by the sheriff of Grayson county.

TAFT WANTS MORE WARSHIPS

Washington, Nov. 29.—It is stated upon the best authority that one of the features of the president's message, which has received its finishing touches, will be the emphasis laid upon an enlarged navy for Uncle Sam. The president favors at least three new great battleships, and his request will be based upon a report prepared by Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Assistant Secretary Winthrop and various chiefs of the navy department. Recommendations for the number of cruisers and other vessels will be in accord with the battleship policy, an increased number being asked for to offset the reduction made last year in the naval appropriation bill.

BRYAN HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS NAVASOTA

Game Played on Bryan Baptist Academy Grounds Yesterday Afternoon—Score 13 to 0.

Yesterday afternoon in a football game Bryan High School defeated Navasota High to the tune of 13 to 0. Two weeks ago in Navasota the Bryan boys suffered a defeat, but by hard work and constant practice they made up their weak points. Navasota played a good game and were heavier to the man than the local team, but were outclassed in speed and headwork. All the Bryan boys played a good game, Houston, Wicker and Osborne starring for Bryan, and Ford for Navasota.

Considering the fact that this is the first year the High school has turned out a team, the boys have made a splendid showing.

The Lineup.
Bryan	Position	Navasota
McCulloch	Left End	Roy Bosse
"Choc" Pipkin	Right End	Robert Bosse
Evans	Left Tackle	Brady
Park	Right Tackle	Peacock, Tosselman
Hajak	Left Guard	Barry
White	Right Guard	Fahy
Dunn	Center	Lee
Osborne	Left Half	Bushnell
Wicker	Right Half	Milroy
Simpson	Fullback	Ford
Houston	Quarter	Harvey
Touchdowns by Wicker and Houston. Goal kicked by Wicker.
